My dear friend -

My heart goes out to you in tenderest sympathy - for I have just been told - (from the paper) of your inexpressible loss - and indeed I feel it a real loss myself -
for I have loved & esteemed & respected

addy since a child
I had not heard of any illness & so it came to me with a shock She seemed so useful & so needed here, that I cannot regret in her translation as I do for many who are called home
She may be called to a broader field of useful now - & if we miss her with the presence her conscious services - we know she is not afar - & the loved, who are the life of our life, abide ever - Her sister & brother & all friends are in my thought - We share in a great loss - but our friend has taken on our hand steps we left) - the one continuous life - & we will try to be glad with her & for her -

Hoping your health & strength are at these best - to meet the demand upon you "I am ever with much love
